

Reading Resources:

Star Fall provides stories and games to help with letters, word building and reading:

<http://www.starfall.com/>

Story Line Online:

The Screen Actors Guild Foundation has video streaming of some well-known actors reading different stories. Questions about the story are available at the end.

<http://www.storylineonline.net/>

Light Up Your Brain:

Use the stories here as a listening center. Students can draw a picture to show their favorite part of the story.

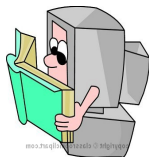

<http://lightupyourbrain.com/>

Free Power Point Presentations available for reading sight words, reading comprehension, cause and effect among many other reading concepts.

<http://languagearts.pppst.com/index.html>

Make your own silly stories to be read at www.iknowthat.com

Reading and Writing Resources:

<http://www.iknowthat.com/com/L3?Area=ScrambledStory>

Or make a sticker story at:

<http://www.iknowthat.com/com/StickerBook?World=Dinosaurs>

Explore more word building and play at:

<http://www.iknowthat.com/com/L2?GradeLevel=-1:6&Subject=Language+Arts>

The Never Ending Story: Encourage students to add their own twist to the story that doesn't end.

<http://www.coder.com/creations/tale/>

Word Games:

Explore words and writing at this Fun Brain site

<http://www.funbrain.com/words.html>

Magic Tree House Reading and Writing Club:

<http://www.randomhouse.com/kids/magictreehouse/club.html>

1st Grade Poetry:

Great site for teaching students how to explore poetry writing

<http://www.vrml.k12.la.us/curriculum/elem/1s>

More Resources:

Fun with Mad Libs using Fun Brain:

<http://www.funbrain.com/brain/ReadingBrain/Games/Game.html?GameName=MadLibsOnceUponA&Brain=reading&GameNumber=2&Color=FFFFFF>

Stories from around the world written by kids:

<http://en.childrenslibrary.org/>

The Berenstain Bears Official Site with games, movies, and more:

<http://www.berenstainbears.com/>

On-line stories available with limited or full memberships:

<https://speakaboos.com/story/arthur-lost-and-found>
www.tumblebooks.com

Lots of fun at the Between the Lions site <http://pbskids.org/lions/>

Reader's Theater Resources:

Scripts Available at:

http://www.mandygregory.com/readers_theater.htm

<http://www.teachingheart.net/readerstheater.htm>

Reader's Theater by Grade Level
(or reading ability):

<http://www.havefunteaching.com/reading-worksheets/readers-theater>

http://edhelper.com/Readers_Theater.htm

An article about how reader's theater makes better readers and reading come alive. Also, info on how to write your own reader's theater scripts.

http://www.educationworld.com/a_curr/profdev/profdev082.shtml

Teacher Resources:

Graphic Organizers:

<http://my.hrw.com/nsmedia/intgos/html/igo.htm>

Writing Fun:

This site is great for all the writing genres and gives examples by grade level —

<http://www.writingfun.com/>

Technology Resources You Might Have at School to Use With Reading & Writing:

Book Flix

Kidspiration

Inspiration

Storybook Weaver

Kid Pix

Movie Maker

Microsoft Word, Power Point, and Publisher

& So Much More

A Whole Page of Sites for Teachers:

<http://www.wmtps.org/techini/bestsite/bestsite.html>

Resources for Teaching Language Arts

For 1st Grade Teachers and Students

Language Arts

Compiled by

Yvonne Bates